THE EAGLE

DEDICATION

Last May, our classmate, John Smith, was tragically taken from our midst. Because of his warm-hearted personality and outstanding athletic ability, we, the Seniors of 1971, dedicate our annual to his memory.

CLASS MOTTO....."The Will to Do, the Soul to Dare"
CLASS COLORS.....Mint Green and Silver
CLASS FLOWER.....White Carnation

A large crowd gathered in the decorated gym on Friday afternoon, October 16, to observe the coronation ceremonies. Master and Mistress of Ceremonies, Jerome Roberts and Sandi Jeffrey, were introduced by the Pep Club sponsor, Miss Kline. Music was supplied by the band, and then Lorraine Hall sang a solo, "More." Next Sandi and Jerome announced the attendants and the King and Queen for 1970-1971. The girls' triple trio sang "Tonight." The Alumni speaker was Mr. Ken Linafelter.

1971 SWEETHEART BALL

Melodie Davenport, Julie Tighe, Linda Adams, Corrine Beacom, Dale Strivens, Susan Smith, Jerome Roberts, Larry Lindahl, Wayne Rastede, Charles Peters.

King Jerome and Queen Corrine

The Master and Mistress of Ceremonies, Scott Stalling and Paula Reuter, opened the annual FHA-FFA Sweetheart Ball with an introduction which was followed by singing of the girls' triple trio. They sang "As Long As He Needs Me"—accompanied by Barb Creamer.

Queen Corrine Beacom and King Jerome Roberts, who ascended a white staircase trimmed with red streamers, were crowned by 1970's king and queen—Dale Strivens and Susan Smith. The attendants to the Queen were Melodie Davenport, freshman; Julie Tighe, sophomore; Linda Adams, junior. Attendants to the King were Charles Peters, freshman; Wayne Rastede, sophomore; Larry Lindahl, junior. The coronation was highlighted by the royalty dance.

"The Confederacy" provided an evening of fun and entertainment with their music.

We, the FHA-FFA, wish to thank the sponsors: Miss Klein, Mr. Halvorsen, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Nelson, and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Stalling.

Mr. Morlock, a terrible old grouch, is very much against the idea of his daughter, Mary, marrying Joe Lanconi, whose papa is poor. But his attitude changes when he has a dream. Luigi Lanconi dies only to come back and haunt Mr. Morlock and all kinds of things happen. So when Mr. Morlock awakes, he gives the couple his permission.

The dictating Mr. Morlock (Gary Troth) assumes usual stance when speaking to his stage wife, Sandi Jeffrey.

The "departed" Luigi is mourned by his also departed wife, Martha (Rhonda Schultz), and a friend, Mrs. Frinck (Linda Book).

Lucifer (Brian Linafelter) from "Down Below" and Mrs. Schmaltz (Janean Fahrenholz), also a returnee from the deep, harass Mr. Black (Bill Hall), a nervous, twitchy mortician, and Dr. Brown (Dan Kavanaugh), the family physician.

As a vivacious thirteen-year-old, Jessica (Sandy Jones) does all she can to keep up with the blossoming romance between Joe Lanconi (Brian Linafelter) and Mary Morlock (Ginger Heckens).

A meek attorney for Mr. Morlock, George Plew (Bob Mitchell), romances a not-so-eager Miss Akers (Marilyn Maggart), secretary to Mr. Morlock.

Two domestics, Mildred (Sue Lundgren), the Morlocks' maid, and the wash woman, Linda Book, complain about their stations in life.

F. F. A. IN ACTION

Kent Sachau, Terry Rahn, John Malmberg, Gaylord Strivens, and Dan Kavanaugh attended the National F.F.A. Convention in Kansas City October 14 to 16, 1970.

Linn Mattes is the only senior F.F.A. member who intends to begin his farming operation immediately after graduation. Linn will farm 320 acres with his dad.

As one of their money making projects, the F.F.A. baked cakes to raffle at a basketball game. Showing off their culinary skills are Gaylord Strivens, Ray Brentlinger, Jerry Geiger, and Gary Lanser.

John Warner, Gary Lanser, Scott Stalling, Gaylord Strivens, Jerry Geiger, and Fred Moore were the juniors who planned the F.F.A. banquet held in April.

At a monthly F.F.A. meeting Gary Lanser makes a motion to President John Warner. Now F.F.A. members will discuss the merits of this motion.

VOLLEYBALL

Swing Out for a Victory!

Despite the fact that there was an abundance of returning letter winners, the Allen High Eagle Jets finished their season with a conference record of 3-4 and an overall 7-7 record. The young squad experienced some very memorable games and some very heartbreaking moments. Much was learned and accomplished by the girls' determination and desire to mold themselves into a well-balanced volleyball team.

Looking ahead in the future, Coach Yannon feels that the Eagle Jets should be a top contender for the conference within the next couple of years.

KINDERGARTEN

There are 18 students in the Kindergarten Class—10 boys and 8 girls. We are working with numbers 1-10 and counting from 1 to 100. We are learning to recognize shapes, such as, circles, triangles, squares, and rectangles. The eight basic colors have been learned by sight and word.

We have learned to write and spell our names and to recognize the alphabet.

Formulating sentences, picture interpretation, visual scrutiny, memorizing images, auditory perception, articulation of words, interpretation and expression of emotional reactions form the basis for our reading skills.

We recited nursery rhymes and listened to stories. We dramatized rhymes and stories and drew original pictures to illustrate our feelings.

Singing and doing action songs kept everyone busy. Pamela Kavanaugh was one of the Homecoming flower girls, and Jeffrey Chase served as crown bearer.

The children enjoyed the excitement of the Valentine and Halloween parties.

FIRST GRADE

Seventeen wiggly, enthusiastic boys and girls mastered the ability to become independent readers by recognizing approximately 400 sight words, learning to analyze new words, selecting their own books and reading them for enjoyment. A definite phonics program, the S.R.A. reading program, and much encouragement helped accomplish the end result—reading for pleasure.

Modern math, writing, spelling, and oral expression claimed their share of each day. Social Studies units on home, school, or holidays and science projects were sandwiched in. We wrote a diary for each day and put it in book form as a gift for our mothers. We celebrated everyone's birthday by making a booklet of pictures and messages.

We presented two plays in costume for the Kindergarten and Second Grade. We enjoyed a Doll and Toy Day, a trip to Shrine Circus, and a program and tea for our mothers. Lisa Hansen and Bobby Osbahr served as attendants for Homecoming. Mrs. Verlon Hingst, our room mother, provided lunch and entertainment on Halloween and Valentine's Day.

SECOND GRADE

There are 14 boys and 9 girls in the Second Grade. Mrs. Johnson and Maureen Guzinski joined the class in November. Mrs. French acted as Room Mother. Her efforts made the Halloween and Valentine's Parties a big success.

The children are learning to read and write cursive. They are adding and subtracting numbers with more than one digit.

THIRD GRADE

Twelve boys and eight girls were enrolled in the third grade.

Subjects taken throughout the year were Reading, Spelling, Math, Music, Language, Social Studies, Phonics and Science.

Our room mother, Mrs. Wayne Stewart, entertained us twice — once for Halloween and again on Valentine's day. At Christmas time we exchanged gifts. The school year closed with a picnic at the Allen Park.

FOURTH GRADE

The Fourth Grade had an enrollment of 22 students this year. Lynette Sawtell did not get her picture taken with the class because she was home recuperating from a tonsillectomy.

Our room mother for this year was Mrs. William Clough.

In the Fourth Grade, the children study the story of Nebraska. Some of the other things we learn throughout the year are how to multiply, divide, and work with two-step story problems. The children find that comprehension is very important when they study their Social Studies and Science lessons.

FIFTH GRADE

Emphasis has been on the story of our country and its people this year in Social Studies. We have learned to honor the great heritage handed down to us by our loving forefathers, who have given us freedom. Study of the basic geographical characteristics of our country has been a major part of our environmental conditions in the United States.

Our reading program has been centered around helping the children develop the essential abilities, habits, and attitude needed in the reading process. A continuous development process has taken place with the stress placed on reading skills such as word-study skill, comprehension skills, phonetic analysis, and structural analysis.

In Arithmetic we have been involved in the basic framework of experience which will make math meaningful to children. The four basic computation skills have been taught, along with important geometric concepts. Fractions have been introduced and mathematical sentences have been used.

We have learned of the instruction and practice in the kinds of language experiences that are commonly required for the study and communication both in and out of school. Language skills are given much attention, including work on sentences and paragraphs, alphabetizing, spelling, choice of word forms, pronunciation and proper usage.

SIXTH GRADE

School opened this fall with sixteen eager sixth graders ready to tackle another year. Since that time, they have worked hard in order to prepare themselves for junior high. A culmination of their study of Mexico resulted in a Mexican Christmas Fiesta. The girls made our Mexican dinner while the boys helped with the pinatas. We, too, were involved in sports. Our boys met the fifth grade on the basketball court, while the girls tangled in volleyball. Both teams brought back victories. With another year behind them, summer is a very welcomed friend.

We would like to thank our room mother, Mrs. Rubeck, for her help with our Halloween and Valentine's parties.

JUNIOR HIGH SEVENTH GRADE

The seventh grade had an enrollment of 25 students. Our room mother was Mrs. Emmett Roberts.

Our class officers were President—Jean Kellogg; Vice President—Lindy Koester; Secretary—Diane Witte; Treasurer—Brenda Wennekamp; Class Reporter—Kari Erwin.

The seventh grade elected cheerleaders early in the fall season. They were JoAnne Roberts and Kari Erwin.

Extra activities for the seventh grade included band, football, basketball, two regular class parties: an eighth grade party and the seventh grade party.

INSTRUMENTAL SOLOISTS

Barb Creamer, Shelly Creamer, Janean Fahrholz, Sheri Kjer, Melissa Emry.

ACCOMPANISTS

Paula Reuter, Barb Creamer, Susie Kjer, Jenell Carr, Darcy Swanson.

Contest at Wayne State College was held April 22, 23, and 24. Receiving superior ratings were Brian and Sheri. Excellents were received by Sandy, Lori, Jan, Barb, Shelley, Janean, Melissa, Band, Choir, Triple Trio, Clarinet Quartet, and Flute Trio. Good ratings were earned by Linda, Dave, and the Brass Quintet.

SWING CHOIR

The highlight of the Swing Choir activities this year was a two-day tour including performances at Ponca, Ralston Middle School, Winside and Allen. Included in the group were Na Shortt-Gary Troth, Shelley Creamer-Glenn Trube, Melissa Emry-Dave Retzlaff, Darcy Swanson-Brian Linafelter, DeAnn Troth-John Warner, Sandy Jones-Scott Stalling, Linda Book-Jerome Roberts, Lori Hall-Darwin Rubeck, Deb Ellis-Bill Hall. Jim Koester replaced Dave Retzlaff when he moved to Hartington late in the year.

SPRING SPORTS ROUND-UP

The baseball team had a rebuilding year with only three seniors. Returning lettermen included Paul Rubeck, Pete Snyder, Gary Rahn, John Warner, Gary Troth, and Brian Linafelter. This year's team had bat girl, Julie Tighe, to improve morale.

The highlight of this year's athletic activities was the athletic banquet. It was a tremendous success and a profitable boost to the A-Club treasury. Guest speaker, Jerry Tagge, quarterback of the No. 1 Cornhuskers, along with other ex-huskies Dana Stephensen, Tom Penney, Al Larson, and Paul Rodgers drew well over 200 persons to the banquet. Loren Reuter was voted athlete of the year, and here he has his picture taken with Jerry Tagge and Coach Yannon.

A small track squad coached by Buster Yannon included Craig Blohm, Jerry Geiger, Terry Noe, Kenton Emry, and Duane Mitchell.

JUNIOR - SENIOR PROM

The theme "Ain't No Mountain High Enough" was carried out at the Prom this year, as the waiters and waitresses sang "Tiptoe Up the Mountain With Me."

Guest speaker for the banquet was Mrs. Ann Meyer. Mr. Yannon, senior class sponsor, also spoke to the group, wishing the Seniors a very successful future.

Gary Troth added a touch of humor to the evening as he read the senior class prophecy.

The Instant Blues Machine entertained as the students danced in the beautifully decorated gym.

Waiters and waitresses this year were Pete Snyder, Mary Peters, Duane Mitchell, Mark Jorgensen, Janell Hassler, Kent Sachau, Suzanne Lundin, and Julie Tighe.

Na Shortt and Shelley Creamer sang a prayer preceding dinner. The theme song "Ain't No Mountain High Enough" was presented by Lorraine Hall. Darcy Swanson was accompanist.

Much thanks may be given to the Junior sponsor, Mr. Nelson, and class president, Janice Kraemer.

Everyone admired the mountains and were intrigued by the flowing spring.

GRADUATION--1971

Sandra Jones, Dennis Hogan, Dan Kavanaugh, Corrine Beacom, and Bill Hall have serious thoughts about the future.

"At last it's over!" Jerome Roberts, Gary Troth, Brian Linafelter, Sandi Jeffrey, Iva Osbahr, and Kristin Rouse remove their caps and gowns.

Janean Fahrenholz, Linda Book, Rhonda Schultz, Ginger Heckens, and Marilyn Maggart give Mike Isom instructions for marching.

Mr. Yannon, class sponsor, congratulates Gene Linafelter, Loren Reuter, Gary Rahn, Kenton Emry, Bob Mitchell, and Brad Kellogg.

"Stability is your knowledge—how to apply yourself, using the talents God gave you." Reverend Niermann, the speaker at Baccalaureate, stressed the importance of starting and closing each day with prayer. "Give and it shall be given to you—give your heart!"

Prior to the presentation of the class by Mr. Heckens, superintendent, and the presentation of diplomas by Norris Emry, member of the board of education, Jim D. Hummel, Director of Admissions at Wayne State College, delivered the commencement address, "Heads or Tails." He challenged the seniors to take action on those things of value to them and their fellowman. His pointed question to the graduates was "Will you be a builder or a wrecker?"

Linda Book, valedictorian of the class of '71, also received the K. R. Mitchell Scholarship.

Gary Troth was named as the alternate recipient of the K. R. Mitchell Scholarship.

Brian Linafelter was awarded an achievement scholarship from Morningside College.

Sue Lundgren was named salutatorian.
