Dare to take flight;
dare to aspire to greater heights!

As we, the seniors, work on this '95-96 yearbook and reflect upon this year, we also remember the classmate we lost the summer before our sophomore year. We felt that our memories of Danny Puckett and his many admirable traits could best be expressed through a poem.

D anny Puckett was a friend who left lasting memories, like when he
A lways had a pocketful of candy and a bottle of Mountain Dew in his coat, or how he was N ever without a smile. Danny took great pride in his artwork and he would have loved
N avigating the Internet-he always enjoyed computers.
But of all these things, most importantly, Danny was
Y oung-too young to leave us so soon. So as we classmates
go our separate ways, each of us will take with us these memories.

Looking mean

Looking upward

Looking at technology

Looking like good friends

Looking like Brian is doomed

Looking goofy

The theme of Looking Onward and Upward can be seen in all kinds of looks of the school personnel. This page and pages 8 and 9 show some of those memorable "looks" around the school.

After being actively involved in the summer of 1995 school centennial celebration and using the theme of looking to the past in the 1994-95 yearbook, the staff wanted to chose a theme that would emphasize the future. For this reason, we optimistically look forward and onward to another 100 years of educating at Allen Consolidated Schools.

The Annual staff chose the theme of Onward, Upward.

The 1995 Homecoming theme was "Not Enough."

To create spirit, dress-up days during Homecoming week of October 2-6 included white T-shirt day, dress-like-a-teacher day, toga, rebel T-shirt day, and dress-up day. Coronation was held Friday afternoon with a pep rally organized by the FHA following. Fun activities included a pudding-eating contest and a lip sync for the coaches, pop-the-balloon contest for the football boys, and presentation of a football to recently-injured Brooks Blohm. The football game that evening was against Beemer and a dance in the gym followed.

How did I get into this?

We got you now, Uldrich.

Great!!! They're not paying any attention to me!

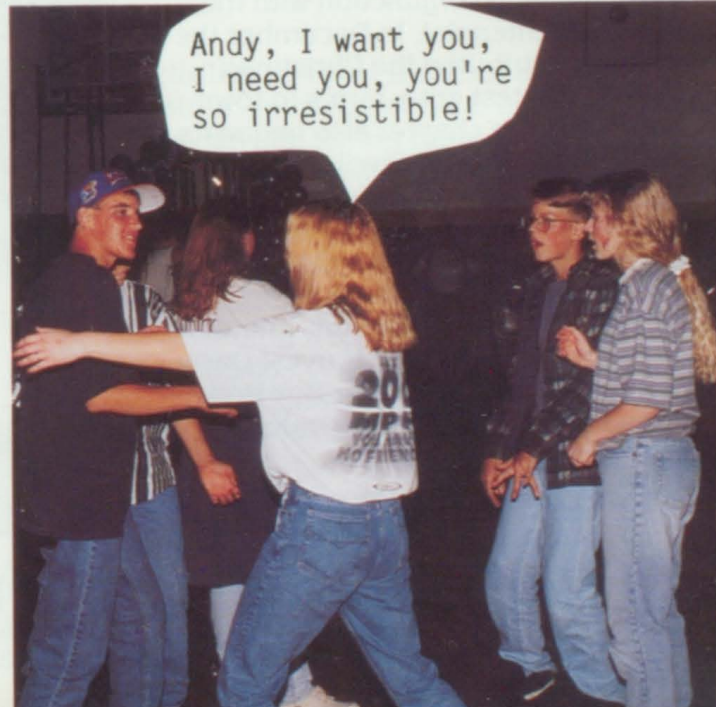

Does anyone have some Skittles?

Allow me to introduce Brian and Brooks as Mr. Kumms and Kristy as Mr. Lacy.

The FFA continued its community service activities.

During the summer the FFA organized the mud volleyball tournament in conjunction with the school's centennial. In December the chapter distributed the Christmas lighting contest entry forms to town residents. The chapter also began its involvement in the recycling project of the town. In-school projects included the fruit/cheese sales, co-sponsoring the Sweetheart Dance, and the spring awards banquet. Educational activities included monthly meetings, attending officer training, Husker Harvest Days, county and state fairs, Tar Box Hollow open house, and various contests throughout the year.

Future Homemakers of America changes its name.

Looking forward to changes in our life style, the Nebraska Association of FHA/HERO voted to change the name of the State Association to Family, Career, and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA). Founded in 1945, the organization has retained its original purpose of preparing members for living in an ever-changing society. The Allen Chapter was founded in 1950 and has remained as a contributing organization to the individual, school, and community.

Activities this year included bake sales, Christmas message service, a snowball dance, fall and spring Highway 9 trash pickup, salad luncheon/officer induction ceremony, and co-sponsoring the Sweetheart Dance. During the School Open House, members babysat for parents attending the event; during Homecoming week, members decorated the halls and conducted both pep rallies. Members attended district convention, participated in district STAR/SEARCH events (Vicki, Carrie, Kristy), and attended state leadership convention.

The basketball teams look forward to better records next season.

This year was one where both the girls' and boys' teams lost games, but the dedication, hard work, and simple belief in "doing your very best" helped both teams. As we look forward to next year, the strong leadership of this year's juniors should be a foundation for a good year.

Recognition went to Michael Blohm for All-Conf. and All-Area team, to Abbey Schroeder, Mindy Plueger, and Shanyn Moran (HM) for All-Conf., All-Area Wayne Herald, and All-State HM, and to Amanda Mitchell for All-Conf. HM.

Students were able to participate in track, golf, and weightlifting this year at Allen. The track team, (right) competed at seven meets. Through a cooperative program with Ponca, Allen students were able to form a golf team (middle, right.) They competed in six golf meets with Scott Williams earning a varsity letter. The weightlifting team (below) only had one competition but did well there. Kyle Crosgrove placed first in his weight division and set a state record in the squat lift with 410 pounds; Tracey Jackson placed second in her weight division and set a state record in the deadlift with 240 pounds; Jason Mitchell placed third in his weight division.

The music department continued to give outstanding performances.

The instrumental music groups performed at the Christmas, Pops, and Spring concerts and graduation. The junior high band (p. 36) competed at junior high contest and received a I. The high school band (pp. 36-37) received a II at district music contest and a Best of Class I- at the Adventureland-Drake Relays Festival of Bands on April 28. The marching band performed at home football games, the Emerson Homecoming parade, and the Wayne Band Day, receiving a I. The pep band provided entertainment and spirit at home basketball games.

The vocal musical groups also provided much entertainment for listeners. The two choirs (p. 35) sang at the three concerts and contests. The junior high choir received a I, and the high school choir received a II. Scenes from the musical "Wanna Play," presented March 21 and 22, are shown on this page. The audiences enjoyed a musical presentation of the dreams and aspirations of adolescents as they learned to deal with life's up and downs.

Students gained oratorical experiences.

The one-act play cast (left,) under the direction of Miss Roberts, presented "Good Night, Caroline" and received excellent ratings at conference and district contests. The play was about husband Alfred (Jason M.) who wanted to get a good night's sleep and his wife Caroline (Tracey J.) who kept him awake. Caroline had a knack of driving Alfred crazy by whining about wanting a new car, criticizing his lamp, and thinking she heard a burglar. Alfred finally moved downstairs to sleep. Unknown to him, a burglar (Tammy J.) was in the house and also gave in to Caroline's nagging.

One-Act Play Cast Row 1-Kyle Crossgrove, Jeremy Kumm, Jason Mitchell. Row 2-Miss Roberts, Angie Sachau, Tracey Jackson, Tammy Jackson.

Jaclyn Karmann-Humorous Prose-Excellent, Persuasive-Excellent

Drama Reading Group-Row 1-Vicki Puckett, Jeremiah Strehlow. Row 2-Carrie Geiger, Kristy Sullivan. Conference-Bronze Medal, District-Good

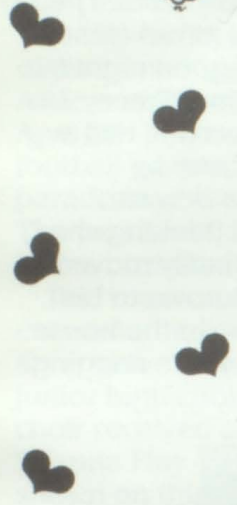

The choir (left,) in addition to singing, also used speaking skills as they presented the musical "Wanna Play."

Several enthusiastic parents organized the revival of the Athletic Banquet this year to honor Allen athletes. The April 18 evening included a catered meal, each coach summarizing the year and giving athletic awards to individuals, and Ray Riefenrath, former Nebraska Cornhusker, speaking about attaining goals and overcoming setbacks.

Jason Mitchell and Abbey Schroeder were named Senior Boy and Senior Girl Athletic for the 1995-96 school year.

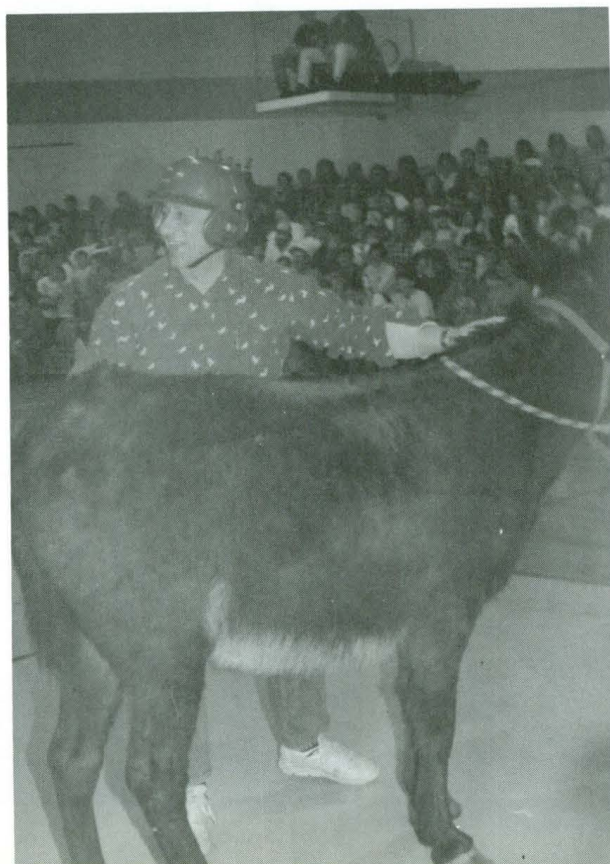

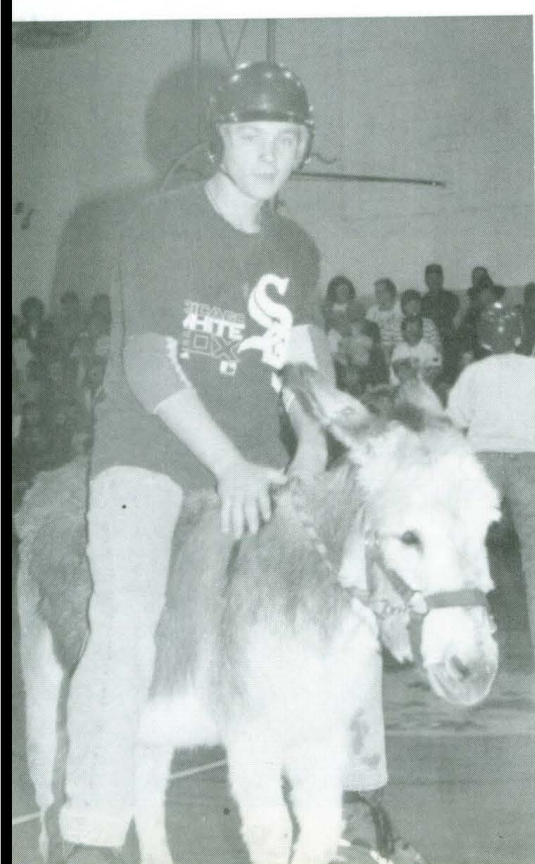

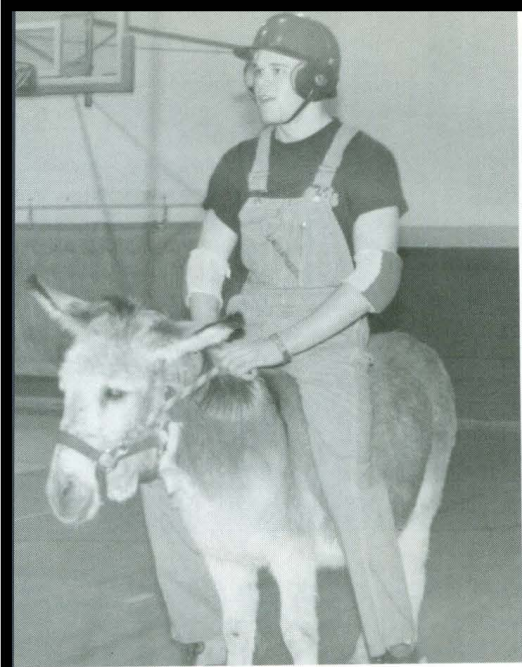

Row 1-Kelly Fendrick*, Shynyn Moran*, Tiffany McAfee*, Jaime Kluver*. Row 2-Wendi Schroeder, Tammy Jackson, Amanda Mitchell, Mindy Plueger, Tracey Jackson. Row 3-Philip Morgan*, Chris Wilmes, Cory Prochaska*. * 1996 inductee

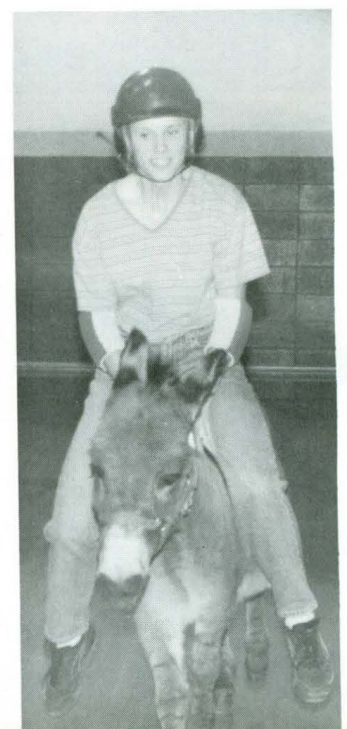

Music awards were presented at the Spring Concert on May 9. Honors went to Tiffany McAfee and Philip Morgan-Director's Award, Amie Gensler-Choral Award, Mindy Plueger-Louis Armstrong Award, and Jason Mitchell-John Philip Sousa Award.

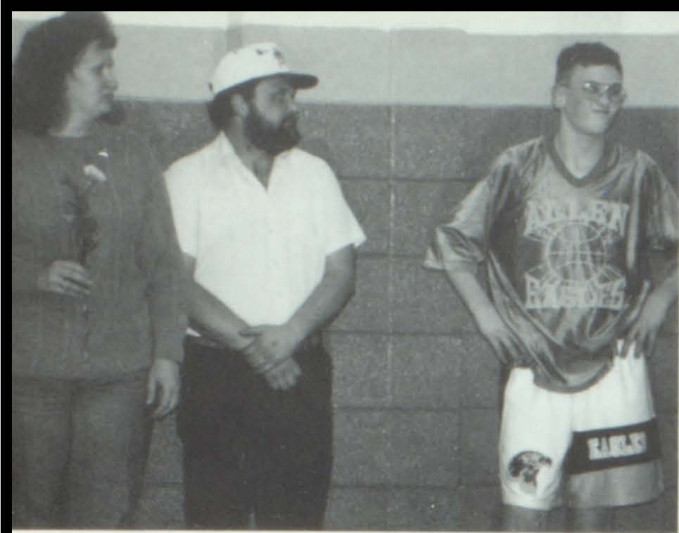

The National Honor Society (left) held its initiation ceremony at the Village Inn on April 30, 1996. Awards, other than the music and athletic awards, were given at an all-school assembly on May 14.

Everyone enjoyed the students, staff, and community people attempt to play basketball while riding donkeys.

The parents of the boys' basketball team were recognized at Parents Night on February 12.

More than just good seed

Everyone who uses Pioneer® brand products knows how well they yield. But, there's more to Pioneer than just consistently good yields. Things like genetic depth. Because Pioneer® brand hybrid and variety lines are so extensive, you can spread your risk without having to go anywhere else. There's the product line itself — it covers everything from seed corn, soybeans, alfalfa, sorghum and wheat to silage inoculant. And if you ever have questions, Pioneer has trained field agronomists available when you need them.

Finally, there's your Pioneer salesman. He's someone you know, like and trust. And because he lives right down the road from you, everything Pioneer offers is right down the road, too.
